

WHEREAS, Maestro Andrew Sewell first took up the baton of the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra in the Spring of the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, he has developed lasting relationships between Madison's artistic communities; and

WHEREAS, he has given his time and shared his talent with Madison's youth through the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra's Side by Side concerts; and

WHEREAS, Maestro Sewell brings an innovative, exciting vision to the Masterworks, Holiday Pops, and Concerts on the Square programs; and

WHEREAS, Concerts on the Square continues to grow and flourish under his baton; and

WHEREAS, the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra through Maestro Sewell, entertains countless numbers of people throughout the year; and

WHEREAS, he brings together the community through the power of music;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor of the City of Madison, Wisconsin, does hereby proclaim March 6, 2010 as in the City of Madison in recognition and appreciation for his commitment to enlightening, educating, and entertaining the residents of Madison, Wisconsin.

ANDREW SEWELL DAY

Signed and sealed this 25th day of February 2010 at City Hall.

Dave Cieslewicz, Mayor