ABOUT THE WISCONSIN CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

No other arts organization in Wisconsin performs free for more people each year. Today, Maestro Andrew Sewell and the musicians of the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra bring world-class music to more than 250,000 music lovers annually. Founded in 1960, the WCO is one of Madison's gems, a national caliber chamber orchestra behind the now four-decade summer tradition of Concerts on the Square.

The WCO also presents the classical Masterworks Series at Overture Center for the Arts, the annually sold-out Messiah, and education concerts for families and children. While headquartered in Madison, the orchestra has played around the state. To learn more about the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra, visit wcoconcerts.org.
